

Centre Director TARI Uyoale (Dr Denis Tippe) and Director of Technology Transfer and Partnership (TARI HQ) Dr Sophia Kashenge handing seed for QDS Production to MS Faustina Mhagama on behalf of trainees from Idodi (Iringa)

Centre Director TARI Uyole (Dr Denis Tippe) and Director of Technology Transfer and Partnership (TARI HQ) Dr Sophia Kashenge handing seed for QDS Production to Mr Amimu Mlondolye on behalf of trainees from Pawaga (Iringa)

Centre Director TARI Uyole (Dr Denis Tippe) and Director of Technology Transfer and Partnership (TARI HQ) Dr Sophia Kashenge handing seed for QDS Production to MS Ester Kandonga on behalf of trainees from Mkula (Kilombero)

Centre Director TARI Uyole (Dr Denis Tippe) and Director of Technology Transfer and Partnership (TARI HQ) Dr Sophia Kashenge handing seed for QDS Production to MS Florida on behalf of trainees from Mariwanda (Bunda)

Centre Director TARI Uyole (Dr Denis Tippe) and Director of Technology Transfer and Partnership (TARI HQ) Dr Sophia Kashenge handing SRI training Manual to MS Leonsia Salakana one of our partners from the Rice Council of Tanzania. Who are supporting QDS producer platform in areas of advocacy

QDS seed producers in the group photo with SRI team and the trainer from Tanzania official seed cortication institute (TOSCI) and representative from RCT. 44 farmers were trained

QDS Trainees were also trained on business aspects of seed production from Dr Julian Mwakasendo (A social economist) als on issues to environment safety and handling of agricultural chemicals in rice production by Mr Adolf Katuniz one our team members .

Mr Mwakatobe from the Tanzania Official Seed Certification Institute conducting training on QDS. All the 44 trainees will have their farms registered and allowed to market seed within their districts